Verse

I walk in a house of mirrors
Not knowing which one's me
The freak show of emotions
Was not what I wanted to see

Pre-Chorus

Clinging a cloak tightly
As protection from the world

Chorus

When the mirror cracks, the glass shatters
I see things how they really are
Hiding from myself
To make it through tomorrow
Is not a way to spend a day

Verse

There's a wall I built
That's now crumbling down
The wind gently nudges me out
To the un-refracted light
